

Workforce Skills

Print4UK Limited 2011

Adrian Ford Joint Managing Director

Adrian has over 30 years' experience in litho printing, starting work as a trainee while studying at the London College of Printing. He became Production Manager at Metloc Printers after 6 years in the trade. He joined Turnpike Press in 1988 as a production assistant, working his way up to Production Director.

At Print4UK, Adrian organises the production of work through the factory, is responsible for quotes and costings, and technical problem solving (both for us and for our clients).

Chris Brady Joint Managing Director

Chris has over 19 years' experience in the print trade and is a digital printing specialist. He started work at GB Litho in 1995, becoming a qualified Mac Operator and progressing through to Studio Manager. He joined Turnpike Press in 2001 as Studio & Pre Press Manager with a brief to update the company's pre press technology and streamline the daily production throughput.

At Print4UK, Chris is responsible for digital & pre press, liaising with clients in regards to sales, production and any technical queries that arise.

Will Anning Direct Mail Manager

Will has over 18 years' experience in the DM industry with companies including St Ives Direct, SBF and Multicolour DM. His roles have included Sales, Production and Management to senior level. Will is responsible for the smooth-running of the DM campaigns, and is involved from the estimating stage, through briefing, production and final delivery. Will is often involved in early briefing meetings with clients to ensure that mailing pack design and schedules are achievable. This help and advice can be called upon as early as the initial concept stage.

Keith Rentell New Business Executive

Keith has over 40 years' experience in print. Working for a Commercial and Law Stationers Company in London for over 30 years gave him an insight into the workings of the print industry as a delivery boy, Xerox operator, and then print Sales Representative. In 1996 he joined a Commercial printer in Hertford and worked to maintain and build client relationships. Now working for Print4UK, he brings all of his knowledge and experience to not only to maintain, but expand the company's client base by providing a first class service to our clients.

Tracy Hughes

Accounts & Administration

Before joining Print4UK, Tracy worked in credit control for a security company based in Shoreditch. Now working in our finance department, Tracy hasn't forgotten all that credit control experience. So watch out. If you owe us money, Tracy will be after you!

Dave Griffiths

Pre Press & Indigo Digital Operator

Dave started work at age 16 as a printing origination and planning apprentice. With the transition to computerisation, artwork became digitalised and Dave's skills started to specialise into the processing of the artwork using Apple Mac computers. Since then Dave has specialised in all aspects of pre-press work and his experience and expertise is now essential for many Print4UK clients.

Andrew Woldridge

Pre Press & Indigo Digital Operator

Andrew has worked in the print and design industries for over fifteen years. He has a wealth of experience which enables him to take a project from the design stage to the finished product. He particularly enjoys working directly with clients to produce quality results. Andrew's technical experience working on both manual and digital print machines (from 2 to 7 colour) has given him an in-depth understanding of how best to meet client expectations. While He relishes the challenge of working on innovative projects, he also has the necessary eye for detail, precision and consistency to ensure that the highest standards are achieved for each piece of work.

Production & Delivery Staff

Our production and delivery team have a total of over 74 years' experience in the print finishing trade and distribution. They are the last, but vital part of the team, ensuring you take delivery of high quality print jobs on time.
